QT FOODS CO., LTD.

Company Philosophy

"Good Things from Japan to the World"
"Good Things from the World to Japan"

01 Our Mission

The mission of QT Foods is simple yet powerful. Utilizing our expertise in trade and logistics, we not only introduce renowned Japanese products to the international market but also deliver hidden gems that have yet to be discovered in Japan. We strive to bring joy to people and cultures across borders and provide products that bring smiles to our customers.

02 Our Vision

We value connections that transcend borders and provide joy and smiles through import and export.

03 Our Core Values

Deliciousness Health and safety
A true smile born from happiness

We value these three values and use them as guidelines for providing the best of Japan to the world and the best of the world to Japan.

Our Business

About Us

We are at the forefront of importing, and exporting authentic Japanese food products and cosmetics, aiming to introduce these treasures to discerning markets across the globe.

Despite our relatively recent inception, we've already made successful inroads into South America and Europe. 2023 marks a significant expansion for us, with a foray into thriving markets like the UAE's Dubai and Chile.

The Global Resurgence of Japanese Cuisine

As health-centric food choices gain traction worldwide, the allure of Japanese cuisine — both nutritious and a symbol of well-being — has grown exponentially. This upsurge in demand is visible not only amongst the discerning elite but also among the broader international community. With Japanese food often seen as a luxury in many upscale markets, we anticipate sustained demand.

Company Overview

Our Services & Distinctiveness

We are relentless in our pursuit of the finest Japanese gourmet and treats, ensuring we remain the gold standard for Japanese specialties across the globe. Our hands-on approach sees us attending various exhibitions in Japan, and our direct collaborations with manufacturers provide us a competitive edge. Whether it's an existing product or a novel request, we're equipped to cater. Teamed with FWT Logistics, our esteemed logistics partner, our vision is clear : to penetrate untapped markets and position Japanese products as a global staple. For samples or large-scale requirements, we are but a call away.

Our Team

Our globally-aware team, rich in trade and logistics expertise, stands ready to facilitate and support your needs. With many having lived and worked across various continents, their diverse experiences ensure a seamless interaction for clients worldwide.

Our Vision Forward

We are driven by growth and the smiles of global consumers savoring our exports. While our immediate expansion sights are set on the Middle East and South America, our aspirations are truly global. We are poised and excited to handle inquiries from every corner of the world.
